Final: A Saturday in early April 2022

Competition Entry Fee: $60 per side entered. The District Treasurer will invoice Clubs after nominations close. Do not pay beforehand.

Green Fees: Payable to OWN CLUB except for final where they are paid to the host club

A Side will consist of ten (10) male/female players. Clubs are invited to enter more than one side.

Composite side (that is 2 clubs, submitting a side of ten (10) players).

Each side shall consist of two (2) Pairs playing 3 bowls and two (2) Triples Teams playing 2 bowls.

The competition format will depend on the number of entries for the competition.

The competition is open to male, female and junior financial members of Clubs affiliated with BDBA and is for players who do not play at the higher levels:

Eligible Players: It is expected that in the spirit of the competition, players would be selected in accordance with their relevant playing ability ranking within their club. Specifically, any player who was graded, or re-graded, as a Division 1 player in the previous pennant season is ineligible to play in the competition.
